Financial Reporting 11th Workshop with SIDREA National Congress First call for papers

The Financial Reporting Journal is glad to announce that the 2020 Financial Reporting Workshop will be held in Bari on September 17th, hosted by the SIDREA National Congress.

The aim of the Workshop is to discuss high quality papers on all aspects of financial reporting and business communication. We encourage the submission of both empirical and theoretical papers and case studies addressing financial reporting issues. Topics may include:

- The introduction and the effectiveness of IAS/IFRS
- The role of financial reporting in capital markets
- The relationship between financial reporting and corporate governance
- Social and environmental disclosure
- Accounting choices and earnings quality
- The role of narrative disclosure in financial reporting
- International accounting harmonization
- Audit quality and financial statements

This year, in accordance with the main topic of SIDREA Congress, papers concerned with companies' crisis and sustainable development will be very appreciated.

All papers will be peer-reviewed prior to acceptance for the workshop. Accepted papers will be presented in a parallel session with a discussant.

Should you wish to have a paper considered for the presentation at the workshop, please email a 1.000 word abstract or a full paper by April 15, 2020 to the following e-mail address: info@frjournal.eu

Submitting authors will be notified of acceptance by April 30, 2020. Please note that final inclusion in the programme will be contingent on receiving the full paper by July 30, 2020.

At the choice of the authors, conference papers might be considered and have a fast track for publication in the Financial Reporting Journal.
